

Quarzazate & The Caravan Routes

Duration: 3 days & 2 nights

Discover this fascinating region which begins at the southern edge of the High Atlas, where desert and mountains meet. The stony desert is broken by green oases where shade-giving date palms grow in profusion. Cut in by steep canyons and studded with arid hills it is criss-crossed by small streams or wadis right up to the edge of the great Sahara desert.

Here the light is intensely bright and the colors sumptuously rich.

Day 1 : MARRAKECH - ZAGORA

Cross the High Atlas Mountains via the Tizi-N-Tichka pass (2260m) from Marrakech to Quarzazate... gateway to the Sahara.

Discovery of one of the most picturesque regions of the country & first contact with the Berber peoples.

Lunch in Quarzazate on a terrace overlooking the Kasbah of Taourirt... guided visit of the kasbah.

Continue along the ancient caravan trails routes to the Draâ valley and its palm grove, which is said to be the largest in the world.

At sunset, enjoy a fun camel trek to the Tinfou dunes.

Night in your hotel in Zagora.

Day 2 : ZAGORA- M'GOUNA- OUARZAZATE

Discovery of the Dades valley, the 1001 kasbah road & the town of Kel-laat M'gouna, famous for the production of roses since the 10th century.

Lunch en route.

Diner & Night in your hotel in Quarzazate.

Day 3 : OUARZAZATE- MARRAKECH

Return to Marrakech via the off-road trails of the High Atlas.

Lunch in T elouet, visit of the kasbah.

Return to Marrakech.
