Nominator's statement
Why the association wants to nominate Nominee	RICS believes that Diane will bring a wealth of experience and positive energy to this important global role. As already exhibited in her extensive professional involvement with both RICS and FIG and evident from her multiple achievements and roles within this document, Diane is perfectly placed to bring together the global surveying profession during this critical time as we emerge from the pandemic and tackle important global and public interest issues. RICS has no hesitation in fully supporting Diane's nomination and we believe this can only strengthen the existing strong RICS historic bonds with FIG and its members associations.
What support (financial, administrative and others) can the Association provide to the Nominee if elected President	RICS will be able to offer assistance to Diane on a number of levels. In particular RICS has a network of international offices which might be able to provide local support for her work as President of FIG.
