

Environment and Climate – The Role and Importance of Property and Land Administration Institutions in Society

Andreas CARLGREN, Minister for the Environment, Sweden

CURRICULUM VITAE

Mr. Andreas Carlgren (49) is the Minister for the Environment (2006-). He has previously been Director-General of the Swedish Integration Board (2000-2006). In years 1992-2000 he was the Deputy Chair of the Centre Party: Second Deputy Chair from 1992 and First Deputy Chair from 1998. He has been a member of the Parliament (Riksdag), member of the Committee on Education (1994-1998). In 1990-1994 he was the Deputy Mayor of the Ekerö Municipality with special responsibility for childcare and schools.

In 1987 to 1990 he was teaching followed by employment in M-gruppen, a training company, to work on environmental development programmes for businesses, including environmental audits. He was Chair of the Centre Party Youth (CUF) 1984-1987.

His education includes teacher training studies at the Stockholm University 1981-1983. He lives in Stockholm, is married to Tomas Harila and has three children.

CONTACTS

Mr. Andreas Carlgren
Minister for the Environment
Miljödepartementet
Regeringskansliet
103 33, Stockholm
SWEDEN
Tel. + 46 8 405 10 00