

Secure Tenure for all Men and Women; The World Bank's Land and Geospatial Program with a Special Reference to Achieving SDGs

Mika-Petteri Törhönen, Lead Land Administration Specialist (Finland)

Key words: Land management

SUMMARY

This presentation will feature The World Bank's developing land and geospatial program in Asia and globally, and explore international frameworks and goals on land tenure in comparison with the existing efforts and investments in achieving them. The presentation will highlight challenges of our time that put pressure on land as well as emerging opportunities that are being provided by disruptive technologies, private public partnerships and opportunities in the globally changing perception of the importance of land and tenure.
